St. Louis Globe-Democrat, of Wednesday, says: "The surface of the river was covered yesterday from shore to shore with heavy ice. The Bald Eagle reports that the Mississippi river 50 miles north of here gorged with ice Saturday midnight. The Eagle made a decided effort to get through to Hamburg, but was forced to give up. Sunday the ice lost its grip and passed ont. The Missouri is full of heavy ice. It is moving very slowly, and another night or two of cold weather would, it is thought, cause a gorge in the vicinity of St. Charles."
